

The St John Association of Uganda (St John Ambulance) a voluntary nonprofit making organization located on plot 29 Buganda road, is looking out for competent Ugandan who can train the public in First aid and other safety courses as below.

Job title: Trainers (4)

Organization: St John Ambulance Uganda

Job Summary:

To deliver and assess St John Ambulance courses to the required standards and content.

Main duties and responsibilities

1. To deliver training courses and conduct assessments to a consistent and fair standard, make reports in accordance with St John Ambulance requirements
2. To maintain current competence and continuous personal development, in accordance with St John Ambulance national training unit requirements
3. To promote St John Ambulance products and services as appropriate
4. To work with staff, casual workers and volunteers to maintain a high standard of training and assessing
5. To maintain a high standard of training and delivery equipment. Report any faults or damages to equipment through the required processes when they occur
6. To ensure that all equipment used, is cleaned and stored in accordance with procedures.
7. Accurate completion and prompt submission of all relevant courses' documentation
8. To be responsible for custody, maintenance and transport of personal equipment
9. To be responsible for cleanliness and security of training venue (including refreshment areas) including prompt collection and return of keys to premises where required.
10. To arrive in good time to prepare the training room and greet students.
11. To liaise, on arrival with in-company contacts to ensure smooth running of the course
12. To work within the St John Ambulance health and safety, training and other policies and procedures as implemented within the organization
13. To pilot new initiatives in training when required.
14. To perform any other duties commensurate with these responsibilities and the skills and qualifications of post holders

St John Ambulance courses

1. Basic level First aid course
2. Advanced level First aid course
3. Basic Life Support
4. Advanced Cardiac life support
5. Advance Trauma life support
6. Patient transport attendant
7. Emergency transport attendant
8. Sports first aid
9. Occupational Health and Safety
10. Basic Fire Fighting and prevention
11. Community Home based care
12. Advanced Community Home based care
13. Instructor Certification Programme

-
Hold a current certificate in Training and Assessment

Experience in facilitation of adult learning

Be aged 20 years or over

Certificate in the courses mentioned

A minimum of a first degree in Education, Social Science, B.A or BSC in any field or a diploma in Nursing. All applications should be sent on info@stJohnganda.org

Closing date for application is 17th August 2019